THE CAMPAIGN TO LIFT THE BAN ON FARRAKHAN

Sheet No. _____

Dear Reader,

The Honourable Minister Louis Farrakhan was excluded from the UK in 1986. Following 15 years of legal, moral and political arguments, the Nation of Islam initiated a campaign, "Lift the Ban on Farrakhan", resulting in the Ban being lifted, July 2001 - a landmark victory! The UK Government however appealed the decision resulting in the Exclusion Order being reinstated. It was stated that the Ban “did not involve a disproportionate interference with freedom of expression" and that the Home Secretary possesses a “wide margin of discretion” and is able to make a more informed decision than a court in the matter. It was also inserted by the Judges that the “events of September 11 had intervened” since the first ruling overturning the Ban. The given reasons made no reference to the previous arguments put forward by the Government concerning the words and character of the Honourable Minister Louis Farrakhan. We believe that the UK public has the right see and hear the Honourable Minister Louis Farrakhan live and in person. Please sign the petition to have the Ban lifted.
